ADMINISTRATION
AND FACULTY

A. A. PAGE, A.B., A.M.

Mr. Page has served as President of Pikeville College since October, 1941. He is a highly educated, cultured Christian man, and is regarded with respect by all of those with whom he is associated.

Pikeville College students have learned to look on him as a friend and leader in this time of war and turmoil. His understanding and desire to carry on the fine traditions of the college has won for him a place in the hearts of the students.

JOHN E. DICKEY, A.M.

Acting Dean

A.M., Western State Teachers' College

A.B., Western State Teachers' College

He is well-liked and respected by all of the students, has a good personality, a splendid sense of humor, and the ability to make friends easily. He doesn't believe in "all work and no play".

Besides being acting dean, he teaches history, geography, and economics. His knowledge of these subjects makes him one of the college's most qualified teachers.

ACTIVITIES

SPIRITUAL EMPHASIS WEEK

The annual Spiritual Emphasis Week was held February 28, through March 3, with sermons in Wickham Chapel twice daily by Rev. Harry J. Hill, now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pikeville, Kentucky.

Rev. and Mrs. Hill were missionaries in Korea for several years. They were forced to return to the United States because of the war.

Mr. Hill's sermons were very impressive, and the response was wonderful. Forty-four students made a first profession of faith and forty others re-dedicated their lives to Christ.

The first sermons expressed sin and the wrath of God, while the latter dealt with one's need for Christ in his daily life.

Mr. Hill also told of the difficulties and the hardships which confront those who seek a Christian life, as well as the joy and happiness which comes when one gives himself to the service of the Master. Many students readily accepted this challenge.

One of the most outstanding sermons of the series was given Friday morning at the regular chapel time, when many of the students whom we had been praying for came forward and made a public confession of their faith.

Mr. Page remarked in chapel that this week had been one of the happiest Pikeville College had ever experienced.

CHEERLEADERS

Lois Ann Huffman

Mary Jane May

Jill Hatcher

Mary Ellen Raney

Pikeville College is unusually proud of its pretty cheerleaders this year. During their three years they have been at every game to cheer the boys on to victory.

Visible proof of their ability is seen in the District Tournament Cheerleader Trophy which they won at the annual tournament and brought back triumphantly to Pikeville College.

COACH SANFORD HURT

Coach Hurt hails to us from Western Kentucky. He was formerly coach and athletic director at Statesboro, Georgia; Breeding, Kentucky; and Boston, Kentucky.

One of Coach Hurt's outstanding characteristics is his desire to sponsor sportsmanship. Even though starting under the handicap of the war crisis, Hurt developed a quintet that held up all the requirements that former teams had held.

MANAGER DAN VINTON

Every ball club must have a manager, and not infrequently the success of the team depends upon the efficiency, the dependability and the cooperation of the manager. Such has been Daniel's record in the season that he served the Bears and Cubs as manager.
